

Project Management Services

Get the guidance and resources to help you meet your goals

Rolling out district-wide Renaissance Learning™ solutions requires careful planning, coordination, and ongoing support. Districts need to know that all aspects of the implementation, from installation of programs to delivery of professional development, are on track. For districts that are stretched to capacity, this may be a challenge. Renaissance Learning Project Management Services executes the roll-out of Renaissance Learning solutions and oversees the Implementation and Professional Development Plan without adding additional strain to district personnel.

Project Management Services include:

- One strategic planning meeting to identify goals of the implementation and set the project plan
- Execution of the project plan with ongoing monitoring
- Ongoing single-point-of-contact to immediately address any challenges that may arise
- Periodic updates on implementation status and tracking toward project goals

By using Renaissance™ Project Management Services, districts will:

- Have a clear project plan with implementation goals, timelines, and deliverables
- Have seamless coordination of technical and professional development services
- Be confident that the project is being executed efficiently, with minimal added workload on district staff
- Stay informed on the progress of implementation and ensure goals will be met
