Waverly is a volunteer at his community library. Plenty of little kids use the library. Now, the librarian would like to get more teenagers to use it too. He has asked Waverly to create an ad to persuade teens to come in more often. Waverly starts by making a list of reasons to use the library.

Which reason is least likely to persuade teenagers to use the library?

1 Library books and other resources can be borrowed for free.

Student Response

2 Many books are for entertainment; others have useful information.

Correct Answer

3 The library has story time on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.
